CULPEPER COMMUNITY GARDEN ASSOCIATION

COMMUNITY GARDEN WORKER JOB DESCRIPTION

The post holders report directly to the Management Committee of the Garden

The main responsibilities of this post, covered by both post holders, are to:

1. Encourage and promote the practical use of the garden by members, local schools, community groups and the public. To do this, you will:
 - a) Organise garden work programmes for garden members and supervise 'Work Days'
 - b) Promote and organise social, educational and fundraising events
 - c) Promote and organise workshops/sessions in the garden for local disadvantaged/community groups and school groups
 - d) Assist in the publication of the quarterly newsletter to members and other material aimed at encouraging participation and understanding of the role of the garden
 - e) Liaise with relevant local organisations, volunteer groups and the media as appropriate
 - f) Treat all garden users with respect and understanding in accordance with our strong commitment to equal opportunities

2. Be responsible for the overall maintenance of the site. In order to do this, you will:
 - a) Undertake and manage the day to day upkeep and improvement of the garden and in particular those areas that are communally used by members and the public
 - b) Advise ploholders on the cultivation of their plots and where necessary provide assistance
 - c) Delegate specific gardening and other maintenance tasks to Garden members and volunteers and provide supervision as appropriate
 - d) Manage the longer-term maintenance and evolution of the Garden in consultation with the Management Committee

3. Undertake a range of administrative and other tasks necessary to achieving 1 and 2, above. This will include:
 - a) Reporting to the Management Committee at regular meetings on all matters relating to the jobholder's duties and, between meetings, liaising regularly with the Officers of the Association.
 - b) Being responsible, under the direction of the Treasurer, for the garden budget, including salaries, petty cash, income and expenditure; keeping financial records; advising the Treasurer in the preparation of the annual budget and for the annual audit.
 - c) Undertaking fundraising as required, including assisting in monitoring and evaluation
 - d) Undertaking administrative tasks relating to membership of the association by collecting and recording subscriptions, issuing membership information and advising the Management Committee on lapsed membership and members failing to keep their plots in good order.
 - e) Carrying out any other duties as directed by the Management Committee.

In all the above, you will give advice to and receive guidance from the Management Committee, which holds six-weekly meetings and is elected from the membership annually. You will be required to attend regular supervision sessions. The post will be subject to a 3 month probationary period.

Hours worked: 21 hours each week to include occasional weekend and evening work

Salary: £24,068 pro-rata (pay award pending)

Annual leave entitlement: 5 working weeks pro-rata

Pension: 5% of salary plus an employee contribution of 2% minimum
